SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; for you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

Christ's parables today made this conjoined point: God in his providence will use even the apparent evil that attends us in life to some perfecting purpose; out of our littleness, our emptiness, our nothingness God's greatness will flower in an astonishing way. The parables verify that our God is the God who has "the care of all" – of every situation, every circumstance, every moment. God shows his might precisely when "the perfection of his power is disbelieved." "The Spirit comes to the aid of our weakness." We can cave in to our weakness out of despair...or we can pray with faith, "Power, whenever you will, attends you."

Magnificat

Thank you to the Carmelitas, Choir and Jake Ryder for the beautiful Mount Carmel & Tekakwitha celebration last Sunday.

We need volunteers!

- Can you help clean the church?
- Donate cookies for Sunday refreshments?
- Can you help serve refreshments after Mass?
- Would you and your family be willing to hand out church bulletins after Mass?
- Serve on Parish Council?
- Pull weeds around the church?

If you can help out, please call office or contact Eppie, Gina or Selina
