SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me, says the Lord; blessed are they who have not seen me, but still believe!

On this Divine Mercy Sunday we recall the words of Saint Thomas Aquinas: "mercy consists in bringing a thing out of non-being into being." We see this transpire concretely in the life of the early Church. The believers "devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of bread and to prayers." They were filled with awe; they were witnesses of wondrous signs; they lived for the good of the other; they were selfless and generous; they overflowed with "exultation and sincerity of heart." God "in his great mercy" gave them- and us- "a new birth to a living hope" through the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. That is what the Apostle Thomas is looking for in the Lord's open side.

Magnificat
