THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Lord Jesus, open the Scriptures to us; make our hearts burn while you speak to us.

The disciples on the road to Emmaus hear the Scriptures interpreted in a way that had never occurred to them before. It causes their hearts to burn within them; it is what they have been waiting to hear all their lives. It moves them to beg the Stranger, "Stay with us." Our hearts burn as we hear Peter interpret Psalm 16 with the same striking authority. It is as if the words that speak of Christ's Resurrection-- "You have made known to me the paths of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence" --- have totally revived Peter's own life. The Word, the breaking of the Eucharistic Bread, the companionship of other followers are what make us realize how truly we have been "ransomed from all our futile conduct."
