Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our hearts, that we may know what is the hope that belongs to our call.

When Peter tries to deny the Lord his Passion--- "God forbid that such a thing ever happen to you!"---he, in effect, is denying the possibility of happiness itself. "It is only by freeing himself through suffering," said Pope Benedict XVI, "that man finds himself, that he finds his truth, his joy, his happiness." Therefore, we eagerly offer our bodies as a living sacrifice to God. For, no matter how much our sharing in Christ's cross may make us an object of the world's laughter and mockery, we know that our need to live our relationship with the Lord will become like fire burning in our heart. "The cross forces us to look upon the fact that we are loved by God. The cross becomes a new center of gravity for the bringing together of what is divided" (Pope Benedict XVI).

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

We are looking for a few more individuals to join the Religious Ed team by helping teach a class or volunteer for planning and/or prepping of activities and events. If you are unsure of how you might be able to help, contact Gina to discuss the needs of the Religious Ed Program. If you have any ideas or concerns regarding the continued growth of the program, we want to hear them. All Parishoners can pray for the growth and needs of the program and for the volunteers that support our parish and make it possible for us to offer Religious Education to the children and families of our parish.

HAPPY LABOR DAY!

O God, the creator of all things, you framed the law of labor for the human race. Graciously grant, by the example and patronage of St. Joseph, that we may do the work you provide us and earn the reward you promise. Sustain us with your grace to live up to our duties in charity and justice. Amen.
