MESSAGE FROM BISHOP BERG

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We join with the friends and relatives of the 11 people killed yesterday at the Tree of Life Synagogue, with the traumatized Jewish community, with the wounded law enforcement officials and their families, and with the people of Pittsburgh in their shock and grief at their loss. The horrendous slaughter of innocent people at a place of worship brings us together, in solidarity, to pray for healing and a unified direction for peace in our communities. We pray for an end to hatred in all its evil manifestations, an end to divisive speech and activities, and a return for our society to basic civil values of respect and charity for all people. These are the virtues for which our country was founded and for which our Catholic faith stands.

Jesus says in Matthew 19:14, "Let the little children come to me and do not prevent them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." and therefore transfers to us the obligation for their rights to life, to liberty, and to the freedom of worship as they are called.

Please join me in my prayers of repentance for what has been done and to effect a change in our future and especially for the repose of the souls of the victims who were lost.

Yours in Christ,
Bishop Stephen J. Berg

What is a Catholic feast day?

A feast day (or festival) is the date a saint, a holy event, or a holy object is commemorated in the liturgical life of the Orthodox Church. A feast day is primarily celebrated through the hymnography of the Church's divine services appointed to be celebrated on such day. Sometimes the feast day commemoration involves a day of strict fasting.
